World Press Coverage of International Communism

25X1C

REF : Your Memorandum, dated 18 July 1956, Subject: "Exploitation of Foreign Language Material Being Airmailed from [REDACTED]"

1. As result of our conversation and reference memorandum, Foreign Documents Division has planned to publish a weekly report entitled, "World Press Summary on International Communist Developments."

The first of these will be completed this Thursday and should be available to you and other consumers within a week following. Henceforth, each weekly issue of the report will be deadlines for reproduction on Friday.

2. The Summary will include the exploitation of material being supplied us through your service and other related sources available to FDD. It's content will follow the requirements outlined by you and will be composed of analyses, extracts or excerpts, summarizations and, where warranted, complete translations.

25X1A 3. Thus far, FDD has received through Acquisitions Branch, CIA Library, three deliveries of clippings from the field, on 16, 19 and 23 July. A method for accounting for these receipts has been agreed upon by [REDACTED] your office and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] FDD. It is understood that we will return the 25X1A clippings direct to you following completion of their exploitation. 25X1A

4. Publication of the new report will supplant the former "World Press Briefs on International Communism" and the sections on East-West and Intra-Orbit travel and contacts will be published weekly as a separate report in [REDACTED] form.

5. I will be pleased to get from you any reactions or comments on the new report which you may receive to the end that it may be best shaped to meet the needs of the community.
